

Lisa Huang Healy's bio:

Lisa Huang Healy, Associate Director of Chinese Language and Culture Initiatives of The College Board, is devoted to promoting Chinese programs across the US. She works closely for the Chinese Guest Teacher Program of the College Board and supports the guest teachers who teach k-12 Chinese in the states. She is also dedicated to developing K-12 Chinese teaching materials with the leading professionals in the field, with a major database project in process and other publications including the first authentic textbook in the US “Learning Chinese with Signs” (看标识学中文, 远东出版社 U.S. International Publishing, Inc.), and articles on CLTA's Journal, Chinese Language World etc.